Re: Successful Completion of Supervised Release.

On August 3, 2004, Qing Di Hu was sentenced by the Honorable John C. Coughenour to time served and one year supervised release for Improper Entry by an Alien, in violation of 8 U.S.C. §§1325(a)(1) and (2). Ms. Hu was ordered comply with the standard conditions of supervised release as set forth by the U.S. Probation Office; and that she shall be turned over to a duly authorized immigration official for deportation proceedings, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d), and with the established procedures provided by the Immigration and Naturalization Act under 8 U.S.C. §1101. As a further condition of supervised release, if ordered deported, Ms. Hu was to remain outside and shall not re-enter the United States without the permission of the Attorney General. If deportation failed to occur and she is pending further immigration proceedings, she shall immediately report to the U.S. Probation Office to begin her term of supervised release.

On December 9, 2004, Ms. Hu was granted asylum. On January 20, 2005, she reported to the U.S. Probation Office to commence her one year supervised release term. Ms. Hu has been compliant during her supervision term. On February 3, 2005, she paid her $10 special assessment fee. In July 2005, she secured employment as a waitress at the Ritz Lounge in Tumon.
